

// Om Sai Ram //

Saturn in Tula

Saturn , The planet of law, justice, patience, pains , punishments and sorrows is moving in Libra for coming two and half years, Libra (Tula) is his most suitable sign, though he becomes exalted in this sign. As Saturn takes approx two and half years in one sign so this takes over all 30 years to come in this sign. Saturn is planet who represents lower class mass people, All employees, general class people and common men comes under his significations. His exalted position in surely going to give lots of benefits to such people, Saturn will also bring justice for his class of people. Industries, productivity, agriculture and infrastructure has to grow during his exaltion period because this will benefit all general class mass public, same time judiciary will be strict to all those who are ignoring law and breaking rules.

Saturn will affect all the 12 rashis in different areas, Leo will be free from sade sati and will enjoy 3rd transit of Saturn , this will be very good period of those people , they will recover their all the past losses they bear in sade sati period. They will start new ventures, their fame will cross geographical boundaries and they will be successful in all the ventures, it will be very good period for those who are still unmarried and looking for proposals.

Scorpio natives will be phasing 1st two and half years of sade sati , during this period they may suffer some losses and expenditures, mental tensions and worries, Pisces natives have to suffer negative effects of 8th Saturn (kantaka shani) and Cancer has to phase ups and downs due to 4th transit of Saturn. Cancer people have to manage their home fronts , there can be some ups and downs and tensions due to disputes.

Arise people will have Saturn in their 7th house, This will be good position for their career matters, people who are planning to go abroad will be successful , business will flourish and prosper. Taurus people will be the most successful as Saturn will be in 6th from their rashi, shani would act as destroyer of enemies , he will remove all the obstructions from the path.

Gemini people have to face some litigations as Saturn would be 5th from the their sign but this will also bring good opportunities for gains of power and position. People who are in social positions or have political background will be the most successful during this period.

Virgos have to still suffer some mental tensions and financial hardships but intensity will be very low, property matters will be solved. Librans will be in 2nd phase but they will enjoy good favour of saturn, home front will prosper and flourish, some tensions at business front are expected. Saggitarians will be getting major benefits and favours from the Saturn as it will be 11th transit for that sign, new ventures, new projects , unexpected gains and support from higher officials will highlights of coming period.

Capricorn natives may phase some hardships in professional front , change in jobs or business or place of business is expected, people who are in dealings with foreign countries will be in benefits and experience growth in business. Aquarians will be benefited by the father and elders, breaks in studies will be over now, they can continue their studies, your will participate religious journies and good deeds.

These are the highlights of major effect of Saturn transit to different signs but it more depends on planetary situation in the horoscope.

Pankaj upadhyay

Indore

saijyotish@gmail.com

www.pankajupadhyay.com