

// Om Sai Ram //

Ups and Downs in Career

Everybody expects smooth and stable professional life , either he is in service, Business or has adopted any academic career, but on other part of coin we see somany examples of lots of ups and down in career/professional life, nobody knows when one may come down from the top or gains a sudden rise.

Here are few case studies with the combinations to study ups and downs in professional life.

Few combinations and planets who are considered important for study of profession/career.

1. Lagna Lord and its placement in one's horoscope decides personality , direction of mind (dispositor of Lagna lord is seen for the stability of mind), intelligence and nature of the native which is the most deciding factor of one's professional life. Strong position of Lagna Lord in the chart gives abilities to fight with situation which important to sustain at the position.
2. Sun is the king of all the planets , being karaka for the lagna , intelligence (light of knowledge) , power and authority and royal status plays a very imp. role for professional matters, position of sun should also be judged in working for ups and downs in career matters.
3. Leo is the Fifth house of the natural zodiac and is lorded by the sun , the kind among all the planets and known as royal sign. This sign is used to study power and authority , that's why 5th house of the horoscope is considered as house to judge power and authority. Fifth house of the chart is studied for the follower or subordinates of the native. (position of the subordinates and followers shows your status in society or at workplace or power / position you hold)

4. Tenth house and its lord (from the moon and lagna as well) are the important pillars for giving direction to the career line and stability in that. This shows your position in the society or social status u hold.

Planets and houses causes distractions

5. Saturn is the karaka for the servants or subordinates and inimical to the sun (boss) . Sun -Saturn combination in the chart is considered yoga for the downfall or loss of image, connection / placement of Saturn with lagna or lagna lord also causes obstruction in career and causes downfall. First house of natural zodiac is arisa sign and debilitation sign (neecha) of the Saturn that's why considered as maran karaka (death like) house for saturn so placement of Saturn in Lagna is not considered good for stable career. Cancer is the exception in all three placements (1st , 5th and 10th) because cancer , being sign of 4th house in natural zodiac and emotional sign considered house of mother and Saturn here placed does not performed negative for the native.
6. Sixth house, 12th house and their lord are dusthana lords , Saturn is the karaka for the both the house, they deals in the enemies and losses, connection of these houses or their lords with 10th , 1st or 5th house causes loss of reputation/ downfall or break in career.
7. Planets important for giving heights in career are important to see in navmansa chart, if they are placed in neecha navmansa (debilitated in navmansa) causes reason for downfall of one's from the height (position). This can also be considered as cause of downfall due to misdeeds of past birth or deeds against the dharma.

Case Study and Example - I

```

*****
* *          MOON          * *          * *
* *          3          * *          LAGN          * *          KETU 1          * *
* 4          *          *          2          *          *          *          *
*          *          *          *          *          *          *          *
* SHANI          *          *          GURU , CHANDRA          *          *          *
*          *          *          *          *          *          *          *
*          *          *          *          *          *          *          12 *
*          *          *          *          *          *          *          *
* *          5          *          *          *          *          *          *
*          *          *          *          *          *          *          *
* *          *          *          *          *          *          *          *
*          *          *          *          *          *          *          *
*          *          *          *          *          *          *          *
*          *          *          *          *          *          *          *
*          *          *          *          *          *          *          *
* 6          *          *          8          *          *          SHUKRA *
*          *          7          *          *          *          *          *
*          *          *          *          *          *          *          *
*          *          RAHU          *          *          *          9          *          *
* *          *          *          *          *          *          *          *
*          *          *          *          *          *          *          *
*****

```

Yoga karaka Saturn (Lord of 9th and 10th house , being a lord of trinal and quadrant house Saturn is called yogakaraka in taurus ascendant) placed in cancer in 3rd house and aspecting Lagna lord venus in 9th house. This is a good Rajyoga, Placement of Lagna lord venus in 9th house is promising career at foreignland.

Fift house , Lagna , tenth house and their lords are free from affliction of Saturn or dusthana lords (lords of 6th /12th house) . Transit of Rahu in capricorn given a sudden change in his career , Anterdasa 10th house lord saturn worked for him and in pratyanter dasa of 5th house lord mercury he got a very good overseas appportunity and shifted from india.

Case Study and Example - II

